

MSA SuperLite 4500PSI Cylinders

Losing weight has never been this easy! MSA's carbon 4500 psig high-pressure SuperLite Cylinders offer up to 12% weight reduction over traditional MSA carbon fiber-wrapped Stealth® Cylinders, and best of all, are standard on all MSA FireHawk® M7 Air Masks.

Benefits include:

- Up to 12% savings in weight.
- Drop-in safety feature--lighter weight reduces user fatigue.
- NO MSA air mask modifications required!
- 30-, 45- or 60-minute duration 4500 psig air supply.

*Because every life has a purpose...

SuperLite Carbon Cylinders

MSA's SuperLite Carbon Cylinders reduce cylinder weight by up to 12% over traditional carbon cylinders, significantly decreasing your firefighters' SCBA weight burden. Double-drawn, super lightweight cylinder liner combined with optimized carbon-based composite materials reduces cylinder weight while maintaining a high strength-to-weight ratio. Available in three high-pressure (4500 psig) models, SuperLite Carbon cylinders incorporate the same proven technology found in previously in MSA's fully-wound carbon composite Stealth Cylinders.

Seamless aluminum liner is continuously inspected, as it is precision-formed in seven steps; the neck is formed by a computer-controlled spinning process. Cylinder is wound thousands of times with high-strength epoxy resin-impregnated carbon fibers. A final fiberglass fiber over-wrap enhances abrasion resistance. Finally, a glow-in-the-dark luminescent band is applied for improved night visibility.

MSA's self-manufactured, proven cylinder valve positions the valve hand wheel at a right angle to the valve stem for quick SCBA air supply activation, even while users wear bulky gloves.

Ordering Information

For high-pressure 4500 psig air masks only, choose from three lightweight carbon cylinder models:
